

Natal Mission Stations (Excluding Zululand)

NATAL is remarkable for the great variety of its mission work, which grew up in the last century in the space of fifty years.

This short list makes no pretence at deep research. It is published simply as an outline guide and ready reference with a short list of books for further reading.

Denomination	Place	Date	Missionaries
1. American Board Congregational 1836	Umvoti Mission Reserve	1836	Grout
	Amanzintoti Mission Reserve	1847	Adams
	Inanda	1858	Lindley
2. Methodists 1846	Indaleni	1846	Allison
	Edendale	1847	Allison
3. Berlin 1847	Emmaus	1847	Posselt
	New Germany	1849	Posselt
	Koenigberg, Ladysmith	1868	Prozesky
4. Norwegian Lutheran 1850	Mapumulo	1850	Schreuder
	Ntunjambili	1879	Schreuder
5. Hermannsburg Lutheran 1853	Hermannsburg	1854	Ludwig Harms
	Luneberg	1854
	Etembene	1856	Kohrs, Meyer
6. Anglican 1856	Umlazi	1856	Robertson
	Springvale	1858	Callaway
	Emhlonhlweni, Ladysmith	(1890)	Thompson
7. Dutch Reformed Church 1861	Ladysmith	1861
	Greytown	1867
8. Presbyterian	Msinga-Gordon memorial mission	1870	Dr. Dalzell
9. Swedish Lutheran 1876	Rorke's Drift	1876	O. Witt
	Appelbosch	1886
	Dundee	1889
	Emtulwa, Umvoti	1896
10. Roman Catholics 1882	Mariannahill	1882	Pfanner
	Mariathal, Ixopo	1887
	Reichenau	1886
	Mariatrost	1896

SHORT READING LIST

- BROOKES, E. H. Native Reserves of Natal, 1957, gives details of Mission reserves.
DU PLESSIS, J. History of Christian Missions in South Africa, 1965, reprint.
FROST, P. J. Bibliography of Missions and Missionaries in Natal, 1969.
SALES, J. M. Planting of the Churches in South Africa, 1971 (ch. 9.)
SUNDKLER, B. G. M. Bontu Prophets in South Africa, 1961.

Compiled by R. A. BROWN